

GOT AN IDEA FOR A WORKSHOP?

(Application deadline: Thursday, May 1, 2014)

Colorado ManREACH is looking for GBQT men who would like to create and facilitate unique and engaging workshops at its 10th Anniversary Celebration at the Cal-Wood Education and Retreat Center in Jamestown, Thursday-Sunday, June 19-22, 2014.

Choose a topic. Be creative! Be daring! Past workshops have included: Gay Jeopardy!, Trans 101, The Blind Leading the Blind, My Tie Dye, Intro To Mindfulness, Not So Square Dancing, Spirituality and the Gay Man, Chain Maille, GBQT History, Astral Influences, Yoga to the People!, and more.

A $150 honorarium will be awarded to each individual whose workshop is selected to help pay for his time, travel and supplies. Workshops should be 75-90 minutes in length. You may apply to host more than one workshop, but each topic requires a separate application form.

Applications are due Thursday, May 1, 2014. The Colorado ManREACH Programs Committee will review all applications and make the final selections. All applicants will be notified of the Committee's decisions. Funding for these workshops is provided by the Colorado HIV/AIDS Prevention Program (CHAPP). Thank you!
